

Cold, cold, cold!

Winter Bees & Other Poems of the Cold by Joyce Sidman

Discover how animals stay alive in the wintertime and learn about their secret lives happening under the snow.

Make a snowball, make a snowball (Pretend to make a snowball)

Throw it now, throw it now. (Use throwing motion)

Make a snowball, make a snowball. (Pretend to make a snowball)

Throw it now, throw it now. (Use throwing motion)

The North wind doth blow,
And we shall have snow,
And what will poor robin do then, poor thing?
He'll sit in a barn,
And keep himself warm,
And hide his head under his wing, poor thing.

What does a cold need? It needs
a comfy bed by a window,
warm socks, Grandma's chicken soup,
and plenty of Dad's silly jokes.
Sometimes, a cold just needs a little time.

Cold Little Duck, Duck, Duck by Lisa Westberg Peters

Come sing a song of winter, of winter, of winter!

Come sign a song of winter, the cold
days are here!

With Winter winds blowing, and cold cheeks a glowing!

Come sing a song of winter, the cold
days are here!
